CONTENT AUTHORING TOOL

Streamline course development to Create Interactive Web-based Courses

The Content Authoring Tool, CATpro, is the easiest and fastest e-learning tool available online. Instructional templates combine drag-and-drop authoring and interactive elements to create content without any programming. No scripting or knowledge is needed. CATpro allows courseware developers of all skill levels to focus on the task at hand: creating effective, engaging, and personalized training. This feature also includes a Global CAT Library, which allows sharing and downloading of CAT lessons. You can share your content or use custom content created by other organizations.

Allows you to...

- Create engaging, interactive content
- Use templates and drag-and-drop authoring
- Build custom content with no programming experience rapidly
- Share training in the global library
- Support multiple authors
